DRAKE'S COLT WINS THE BIG STAKES FROM MERCURY.

Runs a-Mile and Five Furlongs in 2:47 3-1 -James R. Keene's Veto Captures the Second Part of the Double Event Mineola Hangs Up World's Record.

As had all along been predicted, John A Drake's Ort Wells won the Lawrence Realiza-tion Stakes, one mile and five furlongs, at Sheepshead Bay yesterday afternoon. The gallant son of King Eric-Tea's Over did not have a romp, however, for O'Neill had to stroke him up at the last sixteenth to stall the plucky challenge of H. B. Duryea's Mercury, by Meddler-Tulla Blackburn, who was finally beaten a length in handy style

Ort Wells took up regular stake weight, 126 pounds, giving four pounds to the Co-lumbia Stable's Graziallo and the Boston Stable's Ostrich, and ten pounds to E. R. Thomas's St. Valentine and to Mercury. He opened at 1 to 3, but the big plungers gobbled the price so easily that he closed at 3 to 10. St. Valentine and Mercury were both heavily backed for the place.

Valentine made the running, with the others following in a compact bunch close behind him to the middle of the far turn, where O'Neill let Ort Wells have his head. Mercury went after the Drake colt flying-and was hard ridden by Hildebrand all through the stretch. Martin, who had been shut off several times with Graziallo, finally went to the outside in the last quarter and finished third, two and a half lengths away.
St. Valentine, stopping to nothing, was eight lengths behind Graziallo.

There was a big surprise in store for the crowd, which numbered 20,000, when Newton Bennington's Song and Wine and his stable companion Blandy were beaten in the second part of the $20,000 Double Event for two-year-olds, six furlongs, Futurity course. They were prohibitive favorites at 15 to 20, R. T. Wilson Jr's Sparkling Star being backed down to 12 to 5, while James R. Keene's Veto, by Ben Brush—Prohibition II., a half brother to Injunction, went back to sixes. Song and Wine picked up 129 pounds and gave seven to all but Veto, who received fourteen. He got away slowly and came in last, badly beaten.

John E. Madden's Councilman, 20 to 1, made the pace to the bend in the track, where the strain was too much for him, and Veto, who had been the runner up, went to the front with a rush. As Redfern put Veto under the whip he swerved into Councilman, who in turn bumped Blandy. The latter crowded Sparkling Star to the rail and Martin al to pull up. Veto finished in hand, winning two lengths in 1:14, Blandy running into the place a length and a half in front of Council

A new world's record was hung up in the handicap at six and a half furlongs, main track, by H. B. Duryea's Mineola, a three-year-old filly by Meddler—Hurley Burley, who ran the distance in 1:18 2-5, the best previous record being 1:18 3-5, held jointly by Jane Holly and Ancestor, who, by the way, ran second to Mineola, beate n a length and a half. Mineola was the choice at 4 to 1, with Grey Friar, Spring [and Ancestor all backed. Grey Friar set a tremendous pace, but stopped at the head of the stretch. Hildebrand let Mineola down then and she went on to victory with brilliant speed. Ancestor peat James R. Keene's Kohinoor, 8 to 1, a head for the place with Grey Friar two lengths behind. The first six furlongs, according to many watches, was run in 1:11%, also world's

"Father Bill" Daly's Jerry C., a 15 to 4 shot, rook the first race, for two-year-olds, at five and a half furlongs, Futurity course, after showing his heels to the others from the start. He had two lengths to spare at the wire, where he was timed in 1:07 2-5. Tramotor, 7 to 2 favorite, secured the place by a head from Frank J. Farrell's Gray Lad, 12 o 1, who was bumped during the early stages and then made up a lot of ground in the final Bulwark and Invader, both well played, were badly beaten.

John A. Drake's Bobadil, with Sperling, a stable boy, in the saddle, was backed down 7 to 2 in the fiftherace, at a mile and a furlong, and after leading from the outset he won in a drive by a neck from Charles Gxx's Possession, played down to fours and ridden by Hildebrand. Bill Daly's Himself, 40 to 1, landed third money, six lengths behind. The time was 1:52, equalling the track record made by Dainty two weeks ago, with 91 pounds. Bobadil's impost was 90 pounds.

pounds. Bobadil's impost was 90 pounds.

John Bode'ns Rosetint, 2 to 1 favorite, on equal terms with H. B. Duryea's Hortensia, won the handicap, at a mile and a sixteenth, on the turf, by a length in 1:47. New York, 6 to 1, was the second horse, while Stilichio, 8 to 1, after a bad ride from Redfern, took third money by a head from Illyria. Hortensia was next to last. Three favorites won, and when the sport was over the talent regretted that the meeting was at an end.

GOSSIP OF THE RACETRACK

REALIZATION WORTH $21845 TO JOHN A. DRAKE.

Chicago Turfman Also Bets on Ort Wells and Wins Thousands on Bobadil—Then He Buys Britisher Outright From J. E. Madden-Yeager Breaks Even.

Lawrence Realization Stakes was worth $26,670 gross, of which John A. Drake's share was $21,545, including $500 for nomi-Duryea was $2,333.33, while Graziallo wor $1,166.67 for the Columbia Stable. The Realization is about the richest three-year-old stake run in this country, and to win it is the ambition of all breeders and owners. It was first run in 1889, when the great Salvator, carrying J. B. Haggin's colors, was victorious in 2:51. In 1890 W. R. Hearst's Tournament won, also in 2:51, which was the time made by M. F. Dwyer's Potomac, too, in 1891. Mar-cus Daly's famous Tammany, with Snapper Garrison up, was the winner in 1892 in 2:51 2-5, while in 1893 Brown & Rogers's Daily America was successful in 2:50 2-5. Sims up. Sims als rode Richard Croker's Dobbins to victory in 1894. Time, 2:55. The next year the big race went to Bright Phœbus, owned by the Del Monte Stable, and ridden by Lester Reiff, the time being 2:54 2-5, while in 1896 the Brookdale, Stable's Requital, Clayton up, got there in 2:49 2-5. A. H. & D. H. Morris's The Friar was triumphant in 1897, his time being 2:48 2-5, and Marous Daly's Hamburg. Tod Sloan up, was victor in 1898, time 2:51 1-5. Then came the triumph of Perry Belmont's Ethelber in 1899, Spencer having the leg up, and the figures being 2:51 2-5. F. D. Beard's Prince of Melbourne won the race in 1900, Spence also having the mount, the time being 2:49 4-5 The same time was hung up by R. T. Wilson & Co.'s Major Daingerfield, Odom up, won in 2:47 2-5 in 1902. Last year Africander was victorious in 2:45 1-5, a record for the race and track which Ort Wells did not appreach yesterday.

Drake was the centre of an admiring throng in the paddock when Ort Wells came back He had not only won a small for tune as his share of the stake, but his com missioners, together with those of his friends, had accepted 1 to 3 and 3 to 10 against the King Eric colt in the ring, about $30,000 being placed by them at these figures. The rac looked so sure for Ort Wells that it would have been an unpardonable stunt to have allowed him to race for the big prize un

Drake & Co. won another bundle of money when Bobadil came home in the fifth race. Their betting agents loaded the books up with $500 wagers at 5 to 1, backing the colt down to 7 to 2. Probably $15,000 was wagered by the Western combination on the Drake colt and $50,000 was the amount taken from the layers on the result. With so much money at his immediate command it was no wonder that Drake proceeded to close a deal with John E. Madden by which the former becomes the sole owner of the two-year-old colt Britisher, by Plaudit-British Blue Blood. Some time ago Drake paid Madden $12,500 for a half interest and yesterhanded over a similiar amount for the other half, or $25,000 for the colt outright. With the purchase goes the subscription for the rich Saratoga Special in which Britisher will carry the Drake colors, the Chicago turfman having no representative hitherto in this important fixture.

Joe Yeager got into his stride when he played Mineola in the second race. He bet $5,000 on the Meddler filly at 4 to 1, and Hildebrand brought home the money in splendid on Mercury a place at 8 to 5 in the Realization the good luck did not last, for a $10,000 wager was lost on Possession in the fifth event, the Requital filly being beaten a nose by Bobadil. Then Yeager dropped another roll on Hortensia in the last, breaking about even on the day.

"Father Bill" Daly had been in poor luck all through the Sheepshead Bay meeting up to yesterday. He had won only $225 in spite of the fact that he was busy starting a horse or two each day. After due deliberation he concluded that the cause of the trouble was the discharge of a cross-eyed servant girl a month ago, and he ordered Mrs. Daly to hunt the domestic up. Mrs. Daly got the girl back late Monday afternoon and the Sage of Hartford told his friends to look out for Jerry C., Himself and Illyria. Jerry C. won the first race at 15 to 1, "Father to show, and Illyria at 40 to 1 was just nose out of third money in the last race. Daly says the servant girl is a fixture in his house as his share of the stake. He was tipped as a at the track played him at the last moment. The defeat of the Benninton pair, Blandy and Song and Wine, was a sockdaloger for the sure thing people. One man, who said he had to pay off a mortgage on his house, came to the track with $5,000 to bet on the stable, but when he saw the price he lost his nerve. A friend, who owns one of the largest stables, advised him to bet on Veto a place and the man plumped the $5,000 down at 8 to 5, going to the roof of the grandstand to see the race. When Veto won, he turned

Thomas had a big wager on St. Valentine for place in the Realization, but he let Dimple severely alone in the fifth. In the same race the clubhouse commissioners went the rounds betting thousands on Reveille and Garnish. Reveille, who belongs to Andrew Miller, ran another bad race and seems to be of no account. Garnish, recently purchased by M. L. Hayman, was the final favorite, but W. Hennessy could not do him justice with the fast pace set by Bobadil. Allan and Sir Roche were practically left at the post in this

John E. Madden has secured second call months, beginning Aug. 1. This means that the boy will ride som for Madden at Saratoga. Beldame has been entered for the Saratoga

Those who watched Redfern's handling of Stilicho in the last race wondered what his riding orders were. He took the St. Andrew gelding in behind his field at the start, pulled him up short on the lower turn and then ran him into several pockets in the backstretch. After that Stilicho managed to get third money.

Previous winners of the second running of the Double Event were Torso, Russell, Victory, Corduroy, Hornpipe, Cesarion, Handspring, Ornament, Hamburg, Jean Beraud, Mesmerist, Elkhorn, Fly Wheel, Whitechapel and Conjurer. Until 1901 the race was run over the old Futurity course. The recordfor the race over the present course is 1:11, made by Conjurer last year.

ALERT WINS, BUT LOSES CUP. Point Score Gives Manhasset Bay Trophy to Trenor L. Park's Mimosa.

The Mimosa, owned by Commodore Trenor L. Park, won the Manhasset Bay Challenge Cup for 30-footers, and that trophy will now be held by the American Yacht Club. Three races were sailed, and in two of these there were four starters, the Bobtail of the Atlantic Club, the Nike of the Seawanhaka Corinthian Club, the Mimosa of the American Yacht Club and the Alert of the Manhasset Bay Club. In yesterday's race only the Alert and the Mimosa started. The Alert had won two out of the three conte the Mimosa finished first in one. By the system of scoring used by the Sound clubs, the Mimosa scored more points than the Alert, although the Alert beat the Mimosa two out of three times.

Each yacht is credited with one point for each host it heats and an extra point for a start. In the first race the Mimosa won and scored 4 points, the Nike got 3, the Bobtail 2 start. In the first race the Milliosa won and scored 4 points, the Nike got 3, the Bobtail 2 and the Alert, the last boat. 1. In the second race the Alert got 4 points for winning; the Milliosa was second and got 3, and the Bobtail got 2 points. The Nike did not finish. In the race yesterday the Alert got 2 points for winning and the Milliosa 1. This made the total for the series: Milliosa, 8; Alert, 7; Bobtail 4; Nike 3.

The Bobtail was in the harbor early in the morning, and went out to the starting line off Execution Rock, but, much to the disappointment of every one, Mr. Luckenback did not cross the line. The Nike failed to appear. The yachts were sent twice over a leeward and windward course, sailing eighteen and a quarter miles in all. The wind at the start was fresh from the southwest. It got lighter during the afternoon, but freshened up toward the finish of the race. Alexander M. Orr, Jr., of the New York Yacht Club, managed the race and Commodore A. H. Alker's steamer Florence was the committee boat.

Alker's steamer Florence was the committee boat.

The start was made at 1:55. The Alert, sailed by Herman Duryea, was first across the line. Commodore Park sailed the Mimosa. With spinnakers the Mimosa soon took the lead, and at the first turn she had gained fiteen seconds. Beating home the Alert took the lead again, and she turned the homemark fiteen seconds ahead of the Mimosa. By that time Mr. Duryea had learned more about the peculiarities of the Alert. Going to the leeward mark on the second round, the Alert gained a lead of 1 minute 41 seconds, and beating home she increased this to 9 minutes and 50 seconds. The Alert had to allow 4 minutes 53 seconds to the Mimosa, so that she won the race by 4 minutes 29 seconds, corrected time. The summary:

NEW YORK AMERICANS BEAT THE PHILADELPHIAS.

Ragged Fleiding by the Visitors and Hard Batting by the Home Team—The Bostons Defeat the Senators Again

The New Yorks and Bostons both won in the American League yesterday, each making it three straight from Philadelphia and Washington respectively. C. St. Louis easy. The results: New York, 6; Philadelphia, 8.

EW YORK (A. L.), 6: PHILADELPHIA (A. L.) '3. Jack Powell was too much for the Philaelphias at American League Park yesterday They reached for and missed his curve ball and made hits off him in only two innings. These hits meant runs, but there were no nough of them to mean enough to be trouble some. The solid hits which the New Yorks made off Bender and the poor support the Indian received connived to give New York the game. Griffith's men played a strong, straightaway game, but the Quaker game was consistently feeble, and the contest was anything but lively. Sharp fielding by the New Yorks supplied occasional ginger.

The Philadelphias did not get a man to first in the first two innings. In New York's half of the second, Elberfeld slashed a liner through centre for three bases and scored on Fultz's two bagger to right. Fast running enabled Fultz to stretch the hit into a double. Powell opened in the third with a hard single to right, which went through Bruce's legs. Jack lumbered to third, but neither Dougherty nor Keeler nor Williams could bring him in with a terrific liner to Pickering. Monte Cross opened the third with a triple.

It would have been a homer but for Fultz's fast move in getting after it. Fultz's fielding was high class at all stages. Powers plugged bounder past Powell and brought M. Cross Bender sacrificed and Hartsel the latter and Kleinow and Conroy made corking good play by getting Powers at third after he had started for home and then tried to get back. Bruce's single to left scored Hartsel. Pure, unadulterated hitting gave the New Yorks a run in the fourth. After Anderson had singled he was forced by Elberfeld. Fultz's second two bagger brought Elberfeld Fultz's second two bagger brought Elberfeld in. Elberfeld's swift work on a slow grounder and Anderson's good pickup deprived Murphy of a hit in the same inning. In the sixth Fultz made a star play by taking Bruce's short fly on a dead run.

A single by Williams, a two bagger by Anderson and a spasm of misfit fielding—all bad throws, two by M. Cross and one by Powers—gave the New Yorks three runs in the sixth. Seybold's muff of M. Cross's throw—Dougherty just managing to reach first after loafing on the hit—and singles by Keeler and Williams gave the New Yorks a run in the seventh. A fine stop by Williams

BOSTON (A. L.), 6: WASHINGTON, 2.

WASHINGTON, July 5.—The Bostons won another easy victory over the Washingtons to-day by bunching hits at opportune moments in a dull and uninteresting contest. The game abounded in double plays, owing to slow base running because of a heavy shower at 4 o'clock, but the score was too one-sided to evoke any enthusiasm. The score:

McCormick planted a two-bagger against the right field fence, Gilbert scoring. McGraw also tried to come in, but was nailed at the plate. Lush to Duggleby to Dooin. Taylor was substituted for McGinnity, and Bowerman took Warner's place behind the bat. In the Philadelphia's half of the ninth Hulswitt struck out. Duggleby singled down the left field line and Thomas beat out a bunt, both moving up on Gleason's out. Lush missed the chance to make a name for himself by flying to Browne.

Chick Fraser pitched the tenth inning and disposed of the New Yorks in order. Jack Doyle began the tenth with a fly to Bresnahan. Dooin, who succeeded Roth in the fifth and who had already made two hits, singled to left and sdvanced to second on MoGee's out. LITTLE RHODY'S FAST RACE. Finishes First in Lipton Cup Contest From Gravesend Bay to Marblehead.

MARBLEHEAD, Mass., July 5 .- The Little Rhody, owned by Charles F. Tillinghast of the Rhode Island Yacht Club, was the first to finish in the 330 mile race for the 100 guinea cup offered by Sir Thomas Lipton. She cressed the line off the Boston Yacht Club station here at 9:48 o'clock on Monday night, having sailed from Gravesend Bay by way of Nantucket Shoals lightship in 58 hours 48 minutes. That is a wonderful performance for a boat of 21 feet on the water line and 34 were very much elated at her success.

The Newasi, owned by A. H. D. Johnson of the Larchmont Yacht Club, finished at

of the Larchmont Yacht Club, finished at 12:40 o'clock this morning. She had to allow 2 hours 42 minutes to the Little Rhody, and was therefore beaten by 5 hours 41 minutes, corrected time. The third boat to get in was the Ray II., owned by Gilbert H. Hawes of the Brooklyn Yacht Club. She finished at 2:30 o'clock this morning. The Fanshawe was some distance behind the Ray II.

The Little Rhody took the lead off Coney Island at 11:30 o'clock on Saturday morning. She passed Fire Island Light at 4:50 in the afternoon and sped on with a strong westerly wind behind her at the rate of nine knots an hour. On Sunday morning the wind was so strong that when south of Martha's Vineyard the spinnaker and balloon jib were taken in and three reefs tied in the mainsail. These reefs were shaken out at noon and the Nantucket Lightship was sighted at 7 o'clock on Sunday evening. She rounded the lightship at 10 o'clock Sunday night. At that time three of the racers were in sight astern of the Little Rhody. At 10:40 o'clock on Sunday morning, the yacht was abreast of Pollock Reef light vessel. Highland Light was passed at 3:25 o'clock in the afternoon.

Light was passed at 3.35 o clock in the afternoon.

The Little Rhody was built last year by George Owen. She is a keel boat. On board with Mr. Tillinghast were George Owen, J. H. Thurston, Erwing O. Hunt,
George A. Fuller and S. Foster.

Gilbert R. Hawes, the owner of the Ray II., has protested the race on the ground that the Ray II. was the first of the cruisers to finish, and that the Little Rhody and the Newasi are racing machines. The regatta committee of the Brooklyn Yacht Club will have to settle the protest.

Briggs and Goodwin Fight a Rattling Eight Round Draw.

The eight round bout between Jimmy Briggs of Boston and Chester Goodwin proved to be a great drawing card at Adams, Mass., on Monday afternoon. The contest was held in Forest Park and was one of the was held in Forest Park and was one of the features of the annual field day of the Berk-shire County Foresters of America, fully 6,000 persons being present. Briggs and Goodwin were in fine trim, and al-though the mill ended in a draw the battle was one of the best seen in Adams in a long time.

was one of the best seen in Adams in a long time.

Briggs went after Goodwin from the start, but the latter had a fine guard and stopped all of Briggs's rushes. Most of the latter's smashes were directed for Goodwin's stomach but Briggs failed to connect. Then he tried swinging and managed to land a few blows, but they were on the neck. Goodwin, however, scored by jabbing Briggs with the left and in the sixth had Briggs clinching. In the final two rounds Briggs more than evened matters and the decision, under the circumstances, was the best that could have been rendered.

The Marlborough team was outplayed in all departments of the game, and although they made a plucky fight they submitted to the superior powers of their American cousins with as good a grace as possible. With a lead of 74 runs on the first innings score, the Quakers batted confidently in their second effort at the bat. There was a distinct absence of tail to the eleven, too, and it was quite a noticeable fact that nine of the team got into double figures. C. C. Morris again showed to advantage at the bat for the Americans with a capital inner of 54. R. L. Pearson, H. Pleasants and H. W. Doughten also exhibited good form, while A. G. Needing 314 runs to win Marlborough made every effort to stave off defeat. The first four wickets fell cheaply, but then H. J. Goodwin and E. Goodman made a lengthy stand which caused some uneasiness in the Haverford camp. Goodwin, however, was bowled for 31, and although Goodman stayed on he was at length disposed of for a plucky innings of 64. S. Phillips also did good work in an innings of 28. The total eventually amounted to just one run short of 200, and the Americans were declared the victors. The score: Haverford, 226, 239—465; Marlborough College, 152, 199—351.
